

U.S. SENATOR

WYOMING

Mike Enzi

Washington DC Internship Program Spring • Summer • Fall

An internship in Washington, D.C. provides students with a practical and educational opportunity to participate in the daily operation of a senate office and observe how the legislative process works first hand.

Eligibility

Priority is given to students from Wyoming, or those attending school in Wyoming, who have achieved at least sophomore status at an accredited university or college. All majors are welcome to apply.

Housing and Stipend

All internships are paid in order to defray the costs of living in Washington D.C.

Housing is not provided, but Senator Enzi's office will supply a list of available intern housing.

Credit

Student may arrange to receive college credits.

For an application, visit Senator Enzi's website

Why do an internship?

Obtain valuable experience in the workplace

Experience the dynamic atmosphere of our nation's capital while serving the state of Wyoming

Meet interesting people from around the country

Establish professional contacts on Capitol Hill

www.enzi.senate.gov